SUFFERS FROM WOUND.

City's Chief Executive Pale and Trembling as Great Throng Cheers.

On the steps of the City Hall at 1 e'clock to-day, in the presence of five thousand people, Mayor Gaynor acceptan independent nomination for Mayor. The offer was tendered to him by Jacob H. Schiff, R. Ross Appleton. Horman Ridder and Henry Clews, heading a committee representing a large number of independent political organisations. Petitions bearing thousands of sames have been prepared and will be filed with the Board of Elections under the emblem of a shovel. Mayor Gaynor presented a weak and trembling figure and caused uneasiness te friends immediately around him. He was unable to deliver his speech of acceptance. His secretary, Robert Adamson, read it for him. Nor was the Mayor able to stand during the twenty minutes of formal proceedings. He rose to his feet three tmes and stood for not exceed a minute. Then he stepped back and est wearily in an arm chair. The heat nearly caused the Mayor's collapse. When he returned to his office he removed his hat, coat and colar and remained for some minutes near

HURRIED IN FAST AUTO TO HIS FINAL HEARING.

Prisoner and Counsel Stunned When Start Is Made for Immediate Inquiry at Coaticook.

SHERBROOKE, Que., Sept. 3.-Harry Thaw this afternoon & his fight to defy deportation by remaining in the Sherbrooke jail. Judge Hutchinson, in the Superior Court here, sustained a writ of babes corpus calling for his release and sworn out by Chief of Police Boudress of Coaticook, who arrested him more than two weeks are.

Thaw was sent for shortly after 2 o'clock. This indicated that the decision would soon be announced and told the fugitive that his lest hope of sanctuary in jail was gone.

Thaw remained dazed possibly three minutes. The crowd began to leave the Judge's chamber in silence. Thaw followed aimlessly. As the crossed the threshold, E. Blake Robertson; Assistant Superintendent of Immigration, tapped him on the shoulder and placed him officially under arrest as an undesirable alien.

The crowd then surged from the building, and it was announced that Thaw would be taken immediately to Coaticook for a hearing. IMMIGRATION OFFICERS TAKE HIM UNCHECKED.

Thaw's lawyers seemed stunned. Special officers of the Immieration Department jostled them in the corridors.

"I'll see you in Coaticook, boys," said Thaw, waving his hand to the Thaw followed his captor to a waiting automobile, which started at once for Coaticook.

Judge Hutchinson a voice trembled as he read the decision, which in effect started Stanford White's sinyer on the road back to Matteawan, and his hands shook so that he could hardly hold the parchment. Thaw did not take his eyes off the Judge. In his right hand he held limply two little pennants of the fair, in progress here, which a little girl had thrust upon him. There were perhaps forty persons in the Judge's chamber. The Court's reading was slow and, while there were indicate
